Nations Voice Active Donors show passionate interest in issues that support causes and fund-raising efforts. These supporters donate to all kinds of charities, plus they support the issues that mean most to them. They willingly support causes they believe in. These generous consumers are active advocates for health, environmental, political and religious issues.

These educated contributors are interested in fundraising campaigns. Non-profit Organizations can select the file to match their specific interests that meet their needs. In 2006 charitable donations from individuals and fundraising campaigns reached over $200 billion last year. Reach this interested and qualified market
